

June 5, 2019

Salary: $120,000-150,000

Position:	Executive Director
Effective Date:	July 2019
Reports to:	The Board of Directors
Responsible for:	A team of approximately 10 staff located in Toronto who conduct test case and Charter litigation, law reform and community development with the goal of strengthening federal and provincial income security programs such as Ontario Works, Ontario Disability Support Program, Employment Insurance and the Canada Pension Plan. Directing the ongoing administrative, litigation, policy/law reform, and advocacy activities of the organization to assure successful and effective delivery of its mandate in an anti-oppression, anti-racism environment.

Job Responsibilities:

- Provides provincial leadership for the reform of income security programs to improve the lives of Ontarians with low incomes
- Leads ISAC in a strategic manner responding to trends in the field of social justice and changes in government policies and legislation
- Provides support to the Board of Directors and Board Committees, as required, including strategic advice
- Ensures smooth operations through cohesive use of resources across ISAC, implementation of effective and efficient internal systems and procedures, and a collaborative approach to decision making
- Responsible for the development and submission of funding proposals
- Supervises staff, Actively promotes and fosters a high level of employee engagement and Supports human resources activities
- Maintains ongoing and effective working relationships with funders and other external stakeholders

Qualifications:

Required

- A minimum of 7 years' experience overseeing and managing teams
- A minimum of 5 years' experience overseeing program budgets, including financial management and forecasting
- Understanding federal and provincial income security programs
- Demonstrated experience using a participatory and collaborative approach to leading teams

Assets

- Legal aid clinic experience
- Appellate litigation experience
- Law reform experience
- Experience working with the Employment Standards Act and workers' rights
- Anti-oppression anti-racism leadership/organizing training
- Experience completing funding applications and reports
- Working knowledge of French

In addition to review of qualifications, interviews and reference checks, successful candidates will be invited to participate in a competency-based assessment.

About ISAC

Please visit our website for more information about our organization: <http://incomesecurity.org/>

ISAC is committed to an equitable, diverse, and inclusive workforce. We encourage applications from: women; Indigenous people, First Nations, Métis and Inuit persons; members of racialized communities; persons with disabilities; people of diverse gender identities or expressions; and all those who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas and perspectives at the ISAC to apply.

Application Information

Please send your resume to isacapplications1@gmail.com

Resumes may be addressed to Lauren Evans, Interim Executive Director, ISAC